Zach Lazar is Midwest Regional President of Harris Private Bank, which provides comprehensive financial services to affluent clients. As a graduate of Loyola University of Chicago with a Business degree in finance, Mr. Lazar has worked in the financial services industry for 21 years.

He began his career as a commercial lender for the Boulevard Bank of Chicago, where he spent four years before joining the Northern Trust Company as a Private Banker. During his 16 years with Northern Trust, Mr. Lazar served as a Second Vice President in the Private banking Group for four years, and then transitioned to Trust and Investment Sales where he spent eight years as a Vice President and New Business Development Officer. His success in this role led to his promotion to Senior Vice President and Regional Director of Sales and Marketing for the Northern Trust, and subsequently to Managing Director of the Northern Trust Bank Glenview. His last role with the Northern Trust was as President and CEO of the Northern Trust Bank Missouri where he was responsible for the growth and expansion of Northern's presence in Missouri and surrounding states.

Mr. Lazar has served on the Boards of Children's Memorial Hospital and the Joffrey Ballet. He has also served on the Board of Governors for Kohl Children's Museum, as a Trustee of the St. Louis Zoo, and Board Member of Washington University's George Warren Brown School of Social Work in St. Louis, Missouri.
